

-  To erase the object: type 'e' and press enter or space, then click on object which you want to erase and press enter or space again / press Esc
-  To mirror the object: type 'mi' and press enter or space, then click on object which you want to mirror and press enter or space again. Then click on point on object and move your mouse up or down or on sides, then click again to stop. (you can keep 'ORTHO' on or off) / press Esc
-  To offset the object: type 'o' and press enter or space, then specify offset distance (type how much you want to offset an object) and press enter or space, then select object to offset and click outside or inside the object / press Esc
-  To move the object: type 'm' and press enter or space, then click on object which you want to move and press enter or space again. Then click on point on object and move your mouse to place of destination, then click again to stop. (you can keep 'ORTHO' on or off) / press Esc
-  To rotate the object: type 'ro' and press enter or space, then click on object which you want to rotate and press enter or space again. Then click on point on object and move your mouse up or down or on sides, then click again to stop. (you can keep 'ORTHO' on or off) / press Esc
-  To scale the object: type 'sc' and press enter or space, then click on object which you want to scale and press enter or space again. Then click on point on object and type scale factor (if you want to have 2 times bigger object type "2" and hit enter, when you want to have smaller object two times type ".5" and hit enter) / press Esc
-  To stretch the object: type 's' and press enter or space, then mark the part of object which you want to stretch and press enter or space again. Then click on point on object and move your mouse to place of destination, then click again to stop. (you can keep 'ORTHO' on or off) / press Esc
-  To trim the object: type 'tr' and press enter or space, then select cutting entities for trim and press enter or space, then select entity to trim and press enter or space / press Esc

PERICO AS

ZWCAD

AUTHORIZED
Distributor